

Written by Steve McKay

riley has been involved recently with women in sport and was 1 of 15 elite athletes selected to promote woman in sport last week at homebush(cathy freeman park last Wednesday). which aired on the today show channel 9. it was to promote women in sport with healthy choices and healthy lifestyles along with making aware of some of the elite women athletes in australia.

And on the same day riley attended the central coast academy awards night with been named athlete of the year for the future stars program, with over 300 athletes in the program it was real honor for riley to win the prestigious award

And just recently riley appeared on wide world of sports channel 9 (national program) for barefoot waterskiing. it showed riley from 8 years old through to riley now 12 years old preparing for the world championships in brandenburg germany ps along with riley named as the central coast bears no. 1 cub and is now an ambassador to the club which is in talks with nrl to make it into the 2013 competition, staff of central coast bears has really appreciated rileys help towards the bid the fan base of the central bears is around 21,000 thus far and great cross promotion for barefoot waterskiing

